

Personal Leadership Philosophy

Dick Gruber

(revised January 24, 2005)

I believe that every leader is set in authority by divine appointment. God, in his wisdom places leaders in positions where their talents can best serve the kingdom. I seek to honor God through my leadership by calling on Him daily for wisdom to lead. As a church leader, I am responsible to prepare the saints for works of ministry. By definition, "saints" includes the children of the church, those who serve the children, and others within my sphere of influence.

Key Verse: "We loved you so much that we were delighted to share with you not only the Gospel of God, but our lives as well because you had become so dear to us."
1 Thessalonians 2:8

As a leader I must...

1. be a servant before I can be a shepherd.
2. walk before I can work.
3. be a prayer before I can be a player.

As a leader I choose to...

1. Encourage those over me
2. Enrich those around me
3. Empower those under me
4. Work hard
5. Walk in integrity
6. Worship with sincerity, be
7. Willing to serve where called
8. Wait on God for direction

I will to leave it better than I found it.
